IAACE Members October Birthdays

Thank You for a Fantastic Conference!

What an incredible time we had at the 2025 IAACE Conference! I hope you all made wonderful memories, learned something new, and felt inspired by the energy and passion of our amazing adult education community.

I know I had a great time laughing with many of you, catching up, and celebrating the important work we do every day. Thank you for all that you do to change lives through adult education, it truly makes a difference.

Next year's conference is already shaping up to be even better with Denise taking the lead on organizing, and I can't wait to see everyone there!

Here are some great IAACE Highlights & Updates:

IN Literacy Association Auction & Raffle. Earned over $3,000.00 in support. Fantastic!

Our Conference Survey is still Open. We have until November 1st, your feedback helps us grow!

October Birthdays. Happy Birthday to Carol Bible and all our IAACE members celebrating this month! We celebrate you too.

Thank you again for making this year's conference a home run. Let's carry that momentum forward and keep hitting it out of the park for adult learners across Indiana!

Play ball,

Caroline Foster

President, IAACE

Thank you, and as always, change whatever you want. Feel free to include my headshot if you want to.

Reflecting on the 2025 IAACE Conference 🎉

What an incredible conference! We welcomed 306 attendees and 19 vendors for three days of learning, connection, and inspiration. Your energy and engagement made it a huge success!

We'd love to hear from even more of you — share your thoughts on all things conference so we can continue to make each year better than the last.

Looking ahead, planning for the 2026 IAACE Conference kicks off soon! Our first planning meeting will be held Friday, November 14 at 9:00 a.m. ET via Zoom. Whether you've been part of the conference crew before or are new to the team, we'd love to have you join us.

Certification Testing Success and Lessons Learned By: Wylder Smith

We're pleased to share that 17 participants completed 20 exams, with 14 successful passes!

As with any first-time effort, we experienced a few growing pains with the new Compass Cloud system, which was expected for a pilot run. With additional preparation and training time, we'll be able to smooth out those challenges in the future. This was my first time using the system live, and it was a valuable learning experience.

On the bright side, inventory delivery went seamlessly, and our test sessions ran efficiently. Thanks to Rob and Deb for their fantastic work and support throughout the process. It also seemed that participants appreciated the opportunity, and using Vincennes University's computers (thank you, Hannah!) made everything run smoothly — they worked great!

Celebrating Generosity: Half Pot & Silent Auction at the IAACE Conference

One of the most anticipated traditions of the annual IAACE Conference is the Half Pot Raffle and Silent Auction — two fun and meaningful ways attendees support literacy efforts across Indiana.

The Silent Auction has a rich history of creativity and collaboration. Every item is handcrafted by students in correctional education programs throughout the state, with guidance and support from their dedicated teachers. From woodworking and art to functional and decorative pieces, these unique creations reflect the talent, skill, and hard work of learners and educators alike. We extend our sincere gratitude to all the teachers and students who contributed their time and talents to make this year's auction a success.

This year's fundraising results are something to celebrate:

- Half Pot Raffle: $282.50 raised this year — bringing the two-year total to $805.50.
- Silent Auction: $2,250 deposited and $621.81 collected via PayPal, for a total of $2,871.81.

The Indiana Literacy Association Board of Directors (Resource Committee) carefully determines how these funds are used to support literacy initiatives and professional development across the state.

A heartfelt thank you to everyone who purchased raffle tickets, placed bids, and helped make this event so impactful.

 Want to see some of the incredible auction items? Check out the conference photo album to view the creativity on display!

What a remarkable Adult Education and Family Literacy (AEFL) Week in Indiana! From north to south, communities across the state joined together to recognize the life-changing power of adult education.

This year, we were honored to receive proclamations from Governor Mike Braun and several mayors across Indiana who proudly declared September 14–20, 2025, as Adult Education and Family Literacy Week in their cities. These proclamations highlight adult education's critical role in strengthening our workforce, supporting families, and building vibrant communities.

Each proclamation serves as a public acknowledgment of the dedication of adult educators and the perseverance of adult learners who are transforming their lives through education. It's a powerful reminder that learning truly is for everyone, at every age and stage.

We carried that spirit of celebration right into our 2025 IAACE Conference, where the energy of AEFL Week was still buzzing. During the Showcase Session, we proudly highlighted the statewide proclamations, shared photos and stories from local celebrations, and applauded the collective success of our programs. It was a moment of pride for everyone in the room — a chance to see how our local advocacy and community partnerships are making a real difference.

 Watch the 2025 IAACE Conference Showcase Session: Showcase Session Video

AEFL Week reminded us all that adult education changes lives. Together, we are creating opportunities, breaking barriers, and shaping stronger futures for Indiana.

A special shoutout goes to the cities whose mayors joined in the celebration by issuing AEFL Week proclamations — including Indianapolis, Evansville, Fort Wayne, Greenfield, Jeffersonville, Kendallville, LaPorte, New Albany, and Warsaw — along with several other communities across the state. Your support shines a spotlight on the power of adult education and its impact in every corner of Indiana.

We also shared some exciting news during AEFL Week! Every member's program received a complimentary membership to ProLiteracy, a wonderful resource for professional growth, access to materials, and national networking opportunities. To keep the celebration of literacy going, we proudly announced the launch of the 2025 IAACE Essay Contest, inviting adult learners to share their stories of transformation through education.

Relive the moments, see the proclamations, and celebrate the people who make adult education thrive across Indiana.

We will close with IAACE winning the COABE AEFL Week Social Media Influencer Award. Thanks to all programs that shared posts that IAACE could pose.

Celebrating the AEFL Social Media Influencers of 2025

We're thrilled to celebrate this year's AEFL Social Media Influencer Award winners!

- Individual Winner: Andrea "Dre" Clements, with honorable mentions to SAAEF alumni Sara Haghighi and Joel Floyd.
- Program Winner: Iosco RESA Adult Education, with honorable mentions to Dorchester County Adult Ed and WorkReady U.
- Association Winner: Indiana Association for Adult and Continuing Education (IAACE).

Each winner will receive a personal note from COABE CEO Sharon Bonney, a digital Influencer Badge, and exclusive COABE swag.

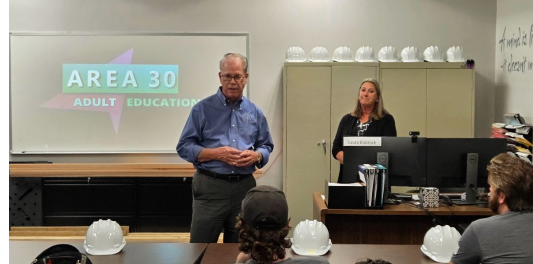

These honorees amplified advocacy nationwide, sparked important conversations, and proved that social media is a powerful force for change.

Michelle Davis, Indiana House of Representatives accepted the COABE Adult Education Champion Award

Governor Braun visit to Area 30 Career Center

"We appreciated the opportunity for our NCCER Core Construction students to meet with Governor Braun and discuss his views on working in the trades vs. traditional college pathways. This was an amazing opportunity for our first pre-apprenticeship class!" Laura Elsbrock from Area 30 Career Center.
